

 Click to Print

Cowichan News Leader and Pictorial

Fire Destroys Shawnigan Lake mobile home

A paramedic tends to the injuries of people injured during an early morning blaze that consumed one home at the Wallbank Road Shawnigan Lake trailer park early Thursday morning. Shawnigan Lake volunteer firefighters Chief Brad Kornelson said three people inside the home managed to escape through a window and all suffered non life-threatening injuries.

Mike D'Amour

Published: April 30, 2009 3:00 PM

Updated: April 30, 2009 3:42 PM

Shawnigan Lake volunteer firefighters battle an early morning blaze that consumed one home at the Wallbank Road Shawnigan Lake trailer park early Thursday morning. Fire Chief Brad Kornelson said three people inside the home managed to escape through a window and all suffered non life-threatening injuries. Pick up your Saturday News Leader Pictorial for more pictures and the full story. Mike D'Amour/photo

Find this article at:

<http://www.bclocalnews.com/news/44089672.html>